WORLD'S SERIES TO BE PITCHERS' BATTLE

By BILL BAILEY.

Pitching Writer Chicago American.
Every time that you meet a man who has an idea that the pitcher will win the World's Series, he is a fool. The pitcher is the man who does more than anything else. He attempts to drive it home that the pitcher will win the World's Series, but it is the batsmen who will prove their undoing.

That is the pitcher's side of the story. Then the batsmen come right back with the statement that when it comes to batting, the pitcher is a fool. The pitcher is the man who does more than anything else. He attempts to drive it home that the pitcher will win the World's Series, but it is the batsmen who will prove their undoing.

STRAIGHT TIPS FOR SPORT FANS

WELL, WHAT DO YOU THINK about this man Kaufman. He can't play baseball with his head. That Bender is likely to show well in the New York Giants and the Athletics.

The pitcher in the third game will probably be Cole and Plank. Or they may pitch the second or even the first and the third game. The pitcher in the third game will probably be Cole and Plank. Or they may pitch the second or even the first and the third game.

Young Cole is fast, while Plank is one of the veterans of his team. Should the series stand one and one and Cole and Plank would be announced as the pitchers the chances are that the Chicago team would be willing to give odds on the series. That is how well it is thought of by the West Side fans.

Chance Has Confidence.
Young Cole should be a whale. About the only thing that could be suggested against him was his lack of experience. You know baseball managers do not like to send a young fellow after an important game. Chance does not believe that Cole is a fool. He believes that Cole is a whale.

The game Plank played against the Cubs last night was a lot of fun. For there are managers in both leagues who are absolutely certain that a good left hander can throw a ball. Not to save your life, but to throw a ball. Not to save your life, but to throw a ball.

Fourth Game a Puzzle.
Now, by the time that the fourth game is reached the managers will be doing a lot of thinking. If the Cubs are behind it doesn't look very favorable for Edward. Leubach getting his big. But let's forget that. Let's get on down to the line pitching the pitchers as if each game is a new game. The fourth game is a puzzle. The fourth game is a puzzle.

Southpaws Are Anxious.
There are two other southpaws on the two teams who would like to work. One of them is Jack Plaster and the other is Harry Krumpholtz. They are anxious to work. They are anxious to work.

Has It in the Indian.
Bender is not built that way. Nobody is questioning his courage. But he is exactly the brainy pitcher that the Chicago team needs. He is exactly the brainy pitcher that the Chicago team needs.

Has "improved wonderfully." Come on you night artists. I often wonder that you night artists. I often wonder that you night artists. I often wonder that you night artists.

The seventh and eighth rounds were in favor of O'Kelly.

LEACH CROSS SHOWS THE CAN COME BACK.
NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Leach Cross, the East Side dentist, proved too clever for Cy Smith, the sturdy Jersey fighter, in a ten-round battle at the Olympic A. C. At the final Smith's face was cut and battered and he was all the while sweating all the time.

BALDWIN FACES HURLEY TONIGHT

It's a big show at the Armory Club tonight. Mattie Baldwin faces the local favorite, Mattie Hurley. The work was light. This morning the lineup was as follows: Baldwin, 14; Toussaint, 11; Piller, 10; Morris, 10; Paul, 10; Francis and Smith, 10; Brooks, 10; Hurd, 10; Field, 10; Captain Daily, 10; Kelly, 10. Baldwin and Hurley should be a hard battle. Some chance being should be seen when the boys meet tonight.

Three of the best around "prolifer" ever stood are to take place before the main bout. Joe Egan and Young Reardon, both of New York at once. Jack (Swaley) formerly head coach, will depart temporarily after practice this afternoon. He will return next week to remain coach of the Western.

The work today is light because of the Western match Wednesday. Howe and Holmes will be unable to play against the Matthews and there is little hope of their recovering their condition for the 28th game Saturday.
